I am an experienced queer and trans rights advocate who wants to contribute to SGLMG as an organisation that actively and consistently stands for LGBTQ+ rights, against discrimination and exploitation, and in the spirit of solidarity and integrity.

I am part of a ticket which stands against bigotry from politicians; against police abuse; for human rights and refugee wellbeing; for queer and trans rights; for the rights of sex workers and public sector workers; for transition leave; for education and representation; and for grassroots political activism. I strongly recommend that SGLMG members vote for the following candidates in the following order:

- 1) Skip Blofield
- 2) Mikhael Burnard
- 3) Levi Hu
- 4) Rachel Evans

Pride in Protest

As queer activists, we refute the assertion that placement on the Mardi Gras board should be meritocratic and based on presumed qualifications. We are appropriate for a role on the board on the basis that we are queer people, engaging with the queer community, and engaged in struggles for social justice.

We strongly recommend that Mardi Gras members vote for the following candidates in the following order:

1. Skip Blofield
2. Mikhael Burnard
3. Levi Hu
4. Rachel Evans
